Evidently she is in great distress, & as the 2d Commissioner proposes to grant a scholarship of Rs 20/- for the 2d son till he attains the age of 21 years I do not wish to stand in the way. The order may be passed accordingly.

"Papers under disposal"

These papers relate to a representation from Lakshmidevamma, widow of the late Mr. Ramaswami Iyer, Assistant Commissioner, bringing to notice her present destitute condition and praying for a scholarship to her second son aged 6 years, both for his education and for the maintenance of the family.

2. Petitioner's mother (mother-in-law of the late Mr. Ramaswami Iyer) has been frequenting the office with all the children and is very importunate. The family is evidently in great distress.

3. The Second Councillor (Mr. H.V.Nanjundayya) has proposed the grant of a scholarship of Rs.20 or so for the second son till he attains 21 years and I submit that this may be graciously sanctioned. I enclose a draft for approval.
